- Residency candidate: MDSK 5204 OR TESL 5204/6204

Activity	Candidate Reflection on the Experience Guiding questions: What are your biggest “take-aways” from this activity? What did you learn? What are potential next steps to extend your learning?	CE Initials/date (indicates completion)
1. Make an appointment to meet with an EC or ESL teacher. Conduct a brief interview with this person: discuss planning for students with special learning needs, assessing these students, working with content area teachers, difficulties these teachers face, and advice they may have for you as a novice teacher working with EC/ELL students. (INTASC 1, 2)
2. Discuss with your mentor teacher or administrator about the process of working with a EC or ELL learner: What is the role of a regular education teacher in an IEP conference? Plan to participate in an IEP conference if possible. What kinds of supports can a regular education teacher expect to receive from the EC/ESL teachers? (INTASC 1, 2, 10)
3. Learn to operate whatever technology is available to students in your classroom (i.e., Smartboard, projector, etc.). Plan to integrate student technology use into at least one of the lesson activities you plan during the semester.
4. Research school accountability data (e.g., test scores, NC report card, School Improvement Plan)

Professional Dispositions
REQUIRED FOR ALL CANDIDATES Professional Behavior and Ethical Practice – To ensure that all UNC Charlotte teacher candidates model the professional behaviors and dispositions expected of practicing teachers, the clinical educator should complete the section below prior to the end of the semester. Residency teachers should have their school-assigned mentor or principal complete this form. Any disposition issues that cause a serious concern for P-12 teachers may also be referred to the course instructor. To the clinical educator/principal: signing each component below indicates that the candidate’s disposition behaviors are appropriate for their level of teacher development. If you have observed any behavior that raises a concern (in your professional opinion), please do not sign ... instead, please 1) DISCUSS this issue and your concern with the candidate; 2) document in the comment box that you have done so; and 3) report the concern on the Candidate Progress Check survey you will receive from the College of Education at the end of the semester via email. You may also report the concern directly to Dr. Tisha Greene in the Office of School and Community Partnerships via email at tisha.greene@unc.edu. UNC Charlotte relies on our school partners to assist us in developing candidates. The lack of a signature does not mean that the candidate will not progress; rather, we wish to coach our candidates on appropriate professional behaviors with your assistance.
Directions: Clinical Educator/principals: sign ONLY if the candidate meets the description below.	Clinical Educator/Principal Signature (Indicates that candidate meets descriptors)
The candidate has modeled appropriate language and behavior at all times. This includes appropriate cell phone/electronics use.
The candidate dresses professionally and is neat and clean in appearance.
The candidate is punctual and responsible with deadlines.
The candidate communicates professionally. The candidate calls or emails (or both!) if something comes up and s/he cannot attend when scheduled. Missed time is re-scheduled.
The candidate contributes appropriately and interacts well with P12 students in their care.
The candidate follows all school policies and procedures for signing in to the school and interacting with P12 students and colleagues.
The candidate contributes appropriately and interacts well with the clinical educator/other teachers.
The candidate is making appropriate progress in the semester.
Any concerns with disposition behavior issues should be discussed with the candidate and documented here. Documentation does not mean that the candidate will not progress in the program; rather, we wish to coach our candidates on appropriate professional behaviors with your assistance. If no concerns are noted, leave this section blank*.
